FHS Credit Recovery Summer Program

Students who failed one or both semesters of a core class are eligible to attend. Credits can be recovered through an online program. Using a combination of animations, simulations, video-led direct instruction, and a myriad of activities, students will be able to use the program to regain lost credit. Course completion depends on the students' pace and dedication. Students must be on task and focused in order to earn credit during summer school. Students who are off task run the risk of not regaining credit. Once students complete their assigned courses, they no longer need to attend summer school.
